

CV Julia Steinberger

Professor Julia Steinberger researches in the broad area of the social sciences of climate change, more specifically the resource requirements for well-being. She works at the University of Lausanne's Institute for Geography and Sustainability, is the academic co-director of the CLIMACT centre, and was a Lead Author of the IPCC's Working Group 3 6th Assessment Report.