

Linda Nartey

Vice Director,

Head of Prevention and Public Health Services Directorate, FOPH

Linda Nartey has been Deputy Director of FOPH since January 2022 and is Head of the Prevention and Healthcare Division. She is a specialist in public health, holds an MSc in epidemiology from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine and a diploma in healthcare management from the University of Bern. She was Cantonal Medical Officer and Head of the Cantonal Medical Service in the Health, Social Affairs and Integration Directorate of the Canton of Bern from 2018-2021 and previously Deputy Cantonal Medical Officer from 2014-2018.

Other positions in her professional career include project coordination in the Clinical Trials Unit (CTU) at the University of Bern, scientific collaboration in the Communicable Diseases Division of the FOPH and at the Institute of Social and Preventive Medicine at the University of Bern. She gained clinical experience as a doctor while working as a junior doctor at various hospitals, at the Women's Health Center Bern and in GP practices.