

Beat Müller

Head palliative care

Lucerne Cantonal Hospital (LUKS)

KD Dr. Beat Mueller, MD, MSc, is a board-certified medical oncologist and specialist in palliative medicine, currently serving as Co-Head Physician of Medical Oncology and Palliative Care at Lucerne Cantonal Hospital, Switzerland. He obtained his medical degree and doctorate from the University of Basel and completed postgraduate training in internal medicine, medical oncology, and palliative medicine, including an MSc in Palliative Care from the University of Freiburg i.Br.. His career includes senior and leadership roles in major Swiss oncology centers. Dr. Mueller is a clinical lecturer at the University of Lucerne, actively involved in postgraduate education, interdisciplinary teaching, and national professional boards, with a strong focus on clinical oncology, palliative care, communication, and medical education.