

Christiane Meier

Chief Physician,
Zurich Municipal Health Services

Christiane lives with her husband and two teenage children in Zurich. She enjoys longer or shorter stays abroad to broaden her horizons and she loves activities in the nature like hiking, cycling and stand up paddling. Christiane has been a specialist in Prevention and Public Health since 2005. 2007-2024 she worked for the cantonal medical office in Zurich, most recently as cantonal medical officer. In addition to the control of communicable diseases, including the corona pandemic, her tasks were supervision of the outpatient practice, civil protection in collaboration with partners, answering political inquiries and ensure prevention and health promotion measures. Since 2025 Christiane is working at the "Städtische Gesundheitsdienste Zürich" as Head of Public Health and is responsible for the development and consolidation of a Public Health strategy but also for the pandemic precautions.